Some brief details of what each workshop will be offering:-

Victoria Yeomans with Pete & Sue Hall - At Home with Deo Volente

A selection of Victoria's compositions from the book and accompanying double CD of the same name, published in September 2020. Many of the tunes are written by her husband Dave. Will we get through all 29 dances?!

(Victoria and Dave play as Deo Volente)

Victoria's workshops are always popular for her clear and engaging calling and with Pete & Sue providing wonderful music, this will be a real Hampshire event.

Ted Morse with Pete & Sue Hall - Only Connect

A day of interesting, fun and challenging dances old and new and from near and far. The dances will be based around four themes. However, the themes will be muddled up, and at the end of the day you will be invited to group the dances and suggest the "connections".

It's always a fun day with Ted Morse as well as great dances.

The Madding Crowd - West Gallery Music

Play with the band or join in with the singing which is in four part harmony (soprano, alto, tenor, bass). Music is provided but you can also learn your part by ear. Booking in advance is essential, to info@fash.org.uk or phone 01243 531497. For more information about Madding Crowd see www.maddingcrowd.org.uk

For this workshop only it's a Bring & Share Lunch unless Covid 19 restrictions dictate otherwise.

Barrie Bullimore with Orions Ring - Contras and Squares - Not for the Fainthearted!

Dances you're unlikely to meet at a Saturday Dance! As well as the common formations this will include multi-set dances (grid squares and contras) as well complex 4 x 4's. Many of these dances use figures from other dance genres, particularly English and Modern Western Square Dance. Come prepared to be challenged but with the confidence that "You Can Do It!"

Fiona Birchall with Pete & Sue Hall - Dancing from 'The Cook and The Waitress'

The Cook and The Waitress is the name of a dance but it is also the title of a book of dances by Julian Hill of Sheffield, from which Fiona is looking forward to calling some dances for us – and we are looking forward to it too. Fiona is an old friend of FASH for her attendance at workshops over the years and calling her own lovely dances for us, so if she is introducing us to this collection, it's going to be a day not to be missed!

The FASH AGM 2021 will be held during the lunch hour at Fiona's workshop
